

One Year in Mission and Service

Make an impact with purpose. Your pathway to serve as a missionary at home and abroad.

Starts
24 January
2022

This in-person course will equip you with the skills needed to communicate the gospel in a way that will make a difference to lives around the world. You'll start at Newbold's campus for theoretical training, and end with an incredible mission trip with ADRA Europe or the Adventist Volunteer Service!

The in-depth year will comprise theoretical studies and scriptural learning, cross-cultural communication and personal development through a holistic approach that is hands-on, academic, and experiential.

The journey

- 1 | Discover the theory of mission work through 4 key modules taught on-campus
- 2 | Learn from leaders in the field of mission with 8 interactive workshops that will expand your mind and your mission skills
- 3 | Develop your confidence and process your learning with a personally assigned mission mentor
- 4 | Apply your knowledge with a guaranteed formal placement in the mission field through ADRA Europe or the Adventist Volunteer Service

The modules

All four key modules are taught on campus across 3-months by passionate academic staff who care deeply about your training and development.

Cross-cultural ministry

Discover the skills needed to minister interculturally

Ministry in context

Broaden your exposure to and experience of congregational life

Religion and ethics in contemporary society

Study the principles, significance and consequences of contemporary moral theories

Contemporary evangelism and discipleship

Develop and evaluate contemporary approaches to evangelism

Why Newbold?

Newbold is a life experience. The intimate campus allows for a tight-knit global community living setting where lifelong friendships are formed and students learn and develop from one another mentally, personally and spiritually.

Support is personalised across all areas of life and study to help you flourish and prepare for where God's calling takes you in your mission service.

Living and immersing yourself in the many opportunities on campus will have the most profound impact on your life journey.
